GRANDAD BOB AND THE WALKING MAN

DIRECTOR
Véronique Sapin

DURATION
10:46

YEAR
2001

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
French

CATEGORY
Video Art

DESCRIPTION
A walking man. He has been walking for a long time, perhaps for a very long time. He doesn’t even know. One day he stops and watches the ground he has covered, he realizes that his imprints are reversed and that they are pointing in the direction he came from, as if he had walked backwards. This is how the legend of Aio begins, the child who traps the wind in a bucket.

SOUND
Stereo

KEYWORDS
Memory, Symbolism, Death, Birth, Childhood

THEMES
Art and culture
Private life