TOUTE LANGUE FAIT FEU

DIRECTOR
Nicole Benoit
Chantal duPont

DURATION
55:00

YEAR
1993

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
Catalan
French

CATEGORY
Documentary

DESCRIPTION
This documentary juxtaposes the viewpoints of a Catalonian playwright, Jordi Pere Cerda (Antoine Cayrol) and a Quebecois writer, Louise Desjardins. The two explore the how their respective work addresses the notion of territories, both interior and exterior. Two countries, two languages to be defended, two different contexts allow for the transmission of their unique ideas.

SOUND
Stereo

KEYWORDS
Author, Writer, Creation, Difference, Territory, Belonging

THEMES
Art and culture
Identity
Environment
Private life
History