DEATH LAID OFF

DIRECTOR
Benjamin Hogue
Pierre Luc Gouin

DURATION
67:30

YEAR
2009

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
English
French

CATEGORY
Documentary

DESCRIPTION
"I prefer to be taken for a fool than to sleep my life away". A veritable emblem of Quebec's counter-culture, the poet Claude Péloquin has always lived without compromise, on a tightrope while "tempting death". On the trail of his disorderly life, this singular documentary invites us to follow Péloquin by means of footage shot on the fly, archival material and samples of his work.

IMAGE FORMAT
4:3

SOUND
5.1
Dolby

SHOOTING FORMAT
MiniDV

KEYWORDS
Artist, Poet, Creation, Inspiration, Writing, Essay

THEMES
Art and culture
Identity
Private life