

DEATH LAID OFF

DIRECTOR

Benjamin Hogue Pierre Luc Gouin

DURATION

67:30

YEAR

2009

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE

English

French

CATEGORY

Documentary

DESCRIPTION

"I prefer to be taken for a fool than to sleep my life away". A veritable emblem of Quebec's counter-culture, the poet Claude Péloquin has always lived without compromise, on a tightrope while "tempting death". On the trail of his disorderly life, this singular documentary invites us to follow Péloquin by means of footage shot on the fly, archival material and samples of his work.

IMAGE FORMAT

4:3

SOUND

5.1

Dolby

SHOOTING FORMAT

MiniDV

KEYWORDS

Artist, Poet, Creation, Inspiration, Writing, Essay

THEMES

Art and culture Identity
Private life