I DON’T KNOW WHAT I WANT BUT I KNOW HOW TO GET IT

DIRECTOR
Patrice Duhamel

DURATION
12:00

YEAR
2001

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
French (on-screen text)

CATEGORY
Video Art

DESCRIPTION
A variety of different playlets, divided into chapters featuring characters who, when confronted by solitude and emptiness, undergo behavioral changes. They seek to reclaim the use of their environments which appear to be cluttered with strange objects, the functions of which require inventing. In the face of this unlikely scenario, the characters turn to simplicity and the active pursuit of a state of well-being, an effort which is not without complications of its own.

IMAGE FORMAT
4:3

SOUND
Stereo

KEYWORDS
Behaviour, object, character

THEMES
Identity
Environment
Society