THE BOUNTY OF THE EARTH

DIRECTOR
Paul Landon

DURATION
12:00

YEAR
1986

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
English
French

CATEGORY
Video Art

DESCRIPTION
In The Bounty of the Earth, fruit signifies the exotic, the unconcious, art and nature. An interwoven text of music, image and words recounts the fate of a piece of fruit as it becomes a commodity to be bought, sold and consumed. However, before it is finally eaten, it resumes its symbolic function as art, manifested in a still life. The original music for this tape was composed by Sylvaine Martin and Serge Montreuil.

IMAGE FORMAT
4:3

KEYWORDS
Consumption, Food, Still life, Symbolism

THEMES
Art and culture
Environment
Society