DESCRIPTION
David has several problems. At a very young age, he sees his father become addicted to drugs and his mother to alcohol. His parents divorce because of family conflicts. He rarely sees his sisters, who live with their father. Everything goes wrong, both at school and at home. To escape his turmoil, he finds refuge in alcohol and drugs. At the age of 16, he has already attempted suicide three times. Thanks to the intervention of a vigilant teacher, he meets with a social worker at school.
