L'APOCALYPSE SELON THÉRÈSA

DIRECTOR
Danièle Nyst
Jacques-Louis Nyst

DURATION
21:29

YEAR
1993

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
French

CATEGORY
Fiction

DESCRIPTION
After the Apocalypse, Theresa takes refuge in an abandonned farm house on the edge of the Nomala desert. One sunny day, she discovers the lifeless body of a young soldier carried in by the river. Theresa takes him to her room that she has arranged in a barn. After resuscitating the young man, she tells him the tale of the Apocalypse and the chaos that followed. She also imparts her vision and the story of how she lost her ring's stone. Two unexpected visitors, Alice (the magic of desire) and a small cosmonaut contribute their own points of view. During conversation they find the trail to the lost stone. The gem turns into an intense light that never leaves them.

SOUND
Stereo

KEYWORDS
Love, Sexuality, Body, Religion, Spirituality, Philosophy

THEMES
Identity
Environment