

PIPA

DIRECTOR

Jonathan Lemieux

DURATION

10:27

YEAR

2010

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE

French

CATEGORY

Documentary

Video Art

DESCRIPTION

Twenty-one years after the police fished my grandfather's lifeless body from the Yamaska River, I chose to return to the scene of his final moments. My sister, carrying a raft made for our PIPA, and my mother, holding the mental souvenirs of her father close to her heart, accompanied me to the town of Saint-Damase in order to pay our respects, but most importantly to not forget.

IMAGE FORMAT

4:3

SOUND

Stereo

SHOOTING FORMAT

MiniDV

KEYWORDS

Nostalgia, Memories, Grandfather, Father, Winter, Snow, Yamaska, Saint-Damasse

THEMES

Death

Family

Private life

Quebec