DESCRIPTION
Exchange is the underlying leitmotiv of this visual art exhibition. What can we learn from this 600 kilometer journey between the two cities? Les Territoires and A.I.R galleries will share their experiences and thus help you to understand the pertinence of contrasting these diverse artistic practices.

This series documents the Brooklyn/Montreal project, a Centre Clark initiative involving 16 institutions and 40 artists in a series of reciprocal exhibitions that revealed the cultural differences and similarities of two cities, both standard-bearers of contemporary art in North America. The event took place in Montreal from October 19 to November 17, 2012, and in Brooklyn from January 10 to February 2, 2013.
