DESCRIPTION
Inside Revolution proposes a journey at the heart of a process of creation. Montreal artist, filmmaker and painter, Yoakim Bélanger, reveals the wings of his artistic universe in this movie which documents three months of residency in the Ste-Brigide-de-Kildare church in Montreal during the summer of 2012. At the crossroads between documentary and art film, he transposes film and painting into a sacred universe; he is inspired by it to reveal and sublimate the carnal beauty of the human body and the spirituality of the individual.
