DESCRIPTION
Apertura in Spanish means « opening ».
This is an opening towards a foreign tongue, a corporal door, of words…
We receive, we learn, we accumulate, we try, we do, we say, we get it wrong, we gorge, we regurgitate…
The mouth is a passage of words, of sentences, of thoughts.
But those words are said wrong, vomited by an overfull, they are not my words, but your words that I try to claim as my own.
