SURVIVAL 101 : IN CASE OF COMPLETE DISAPPEARANCE

DIRECTOR
Jinyoung Kim

DURATION
14:42

YEAR
2019

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
Korean

CATEGORY
Experimental

DESCRIPTION
The video documents a conversation between a family of three, in which they plan their survival in the event of an apocalypse. The conversation revolves around an imaginary situation where they would be the only human survivors and later, encountering an unknown being. Visually weaving the conversation through the site of an urban development in South Korea, the narrative unfolds with the disclosure of one’s simulated response to the notions of migration, integration, and community.

IMAGE FORMAT
16:9

SOUND
Stereo

SHOOTING FORMAT
HD

KEYWORDS
Apocalypse, survival, survivors, discussions, South Korea

THEMES
Socio-politics
Family