DESCRIPTION
A 2020 crossing of two earlier crossings: one video, one audio.

The video is from a crossing on a ferry from Piraeus port, Athens, Greece, to Syros Island, in the Cyclades, in the Aegean Sea, shot through the vessel's distorting window by Katherine Liberovskaya in 2018. The audio is from a crossing on a ferry from central Lisbon, Portugal, to Cacilhas, across the mouth of the Tagus River, recorded near the boat's motor by Phill Niblock in 2011. A fleeting journey for the eyes and ears.
